POSA was founded in 1998 and is made up of men and women who serve in law enforcement from the City of Scottsdale. The members of the organization are so dedicated to helping the community that in 2005, POSA Outreach, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization was created. Programs benefit all members of the community including youth, parents, seniors, families and merchants.

The 907 Fund (also known as the Officer Needs Assistance Fund) was created in 2007 to help both sworn and civilian law enforcement personnel with financial assistance and has helped over 50 families since its inception. The 907 Fund is named for the police radio code “907,” meaning an officer is calling for emergency assistance.
